

PROFILE

Born in Hong Kong, educated in Toronto, and now shaping brands in London, I bring a global perspective to branding and design. With a decade of experience, I've helped leading consumer brands create impactful, award-winning work.

Passionate about storytelling and visual identity, I focus on blending creativity with commercial success. Always eager to collaborate and innovate.

EXPERIENCE

Marks (London)

DESIGN DIRECTOR

Aug 2023 – Apr 2025

SENIOR DESIGNER

Sept 2021 – Aug 2023

As Design Director at Marks London, I set the creative direction and partnered closely with the strategy team — shaping brand narratives and building clear creative territories that opened new ways to tell brand stories. I led a small, hands-on team, translating ideas into precise visual cues that help clients express their brand and product philosophy with clarity.

Over three and a half years at Marks, I focused mainly on the Haleon account, contributing to a broad spectrum of work that strengthened the brand's presence and reinforced its leadership in medicinal personal care. A highlight was leading the Clinical White project, which won Best in Class at the 2025 PAC Awards. I also co-led the Platinum EX range for Japan, a flagship 2024 launch that landed strongly in market.

NOTABLE PROJECTS

Sensodyne Clinical tier — concept and brand development, pack design, rollout
Sensodyne Japan – Platinum EX range — concept and pack design, variant rollout
Parodontax China redesign — concept and pack design, illustration direction, rollout

FutureBrand (London)

May 2016 – Sept 2021

MID-WEIGHT DESIGNER

My work focused on concept research and development, brand world creation, and packaging design systems for both projects and pitches. I was also involved in illustration, style guide development, and photography direction, contributing to the creation of cohesive brand identities.

NOTABLE PROJECTS

Purina One — concept and pack design, illustration style direction, rollout
